Key Question 3: How well do the learning experiences meet the needs and interests of learners and the wider community?

Grade 2: Good features and no important shortcomings

- 85 The pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development is successfully promoted through a wide range of learning experiences. Pupils receive regular opportunities to study their local area and to participate in social and cultural activities in the village. This creates in them a clear sense of ownership and responsibility towards the school and the surrounding area.
- 86 The sessions of collective worship fulfil legal requirements and make an evident contribution to developing pupils' understanding of spiritual, moral and social issues.
